

12 Ways To Ensure The Holidays Don't Leave You With Clutter In The New Year

By: Alexander Harris

Christmas is a time of celebration and cheer, but also a time of clutter. From tacky decorations and ugly sweaters to fruitcakes and tube socks from Aunt Beatrice, the winter holiday brings with it a blizzard of stuff we don't always need or want.

5. Ask for a wish list.

Don't play the guessing game, says celebrity home stager Tori Toth. "Choosing a gift can be hard, but I try and find out what the person actually needs so it won't end up in a closet," Toth said. "I still think asking for a wish list is an important step in the gift giving process."
